RE: GARY, Brenda Lee
Docket No: 5:02cr8BrN-001
REQUESTING COURT INSTRUCTION/
TERM OF SUPERVISED RELEASE EXPIRES
JUNE 30, 2006

Dear Judge Bramlette:

The above-named offender was sentenced by Your Honor, February 3, 2003, after pleading guilty to Theft of Public Money. Gary was sentenced to four (4) months imprisonment followed by a three (3) year term of supervised release. The Court ordered Gary to pay restitution in the amount of $16,520.00. She began her term of supervised release on July 1, 2003, and is scheduled to expire June 30, 2006.

The offender was originally ordered to pay the restitution at a rate of not less than $100.00 per month, to begin sixty (60) days after her release from prison. Over the course of her supervision, Gary paid sporadically at best. She supports herself with an SSI benefit check and minimal monies earned from babysitting. The offender's family has been under a tremendous strain for over a year. Brenda Gary's daughter, Amisha Anderson, was nearly killed in a house fire in Hermanville, Mississippi, on June 17, 2005, after receiving third degree burns to over fifty percent of her body. These injuries occurred while getting her two small children out of the burning house. She spent over seven (7) months in the Nashville Burn Center in Nashville, Tennessee, before returning home to Hermanville. While Amisha was in the burn center, Gary cared for the children at her Hermanville residence.

As of this writing the offender has a current balance of $14,799.00. If Gary's supervision was extended in efforts to collect more restitution, the gain would be minimal. This officer recommends the Court allow Gary's term of supervised release to expire June 30, 2006, as scheduled, with any remaining restitution balance to be monitored by the U.S. Attorney's Financial Litigation Unit (FLU).
